

RÉMY COINTREAU

10 June 2014

Valérie Chapoulaud-Floquet appointed CEO of the Rémy Cointreau Group

Rémy Cointreau announces the appointment of Valérie Chapoulaud-Floquet as Chief Executive Officer of the Rémy Cointreau Group. She will join the Group in mid-September 2014 and will report to François Hériard Dubreuil, Chairman of the Rémy Cointreau Group.

“The arrival of Valérie Chapoulaud-Floquet marks a new phase in the development and ambitions of the Rémy Cointreau Group. Valérie has demonstrated her outstanding leadership qualities through a largely international career within highly renowned companies. We are delighted that she is joining us at the helm of the Rémy Cointreau group: her keen understanding of the brand, her knowledge of the luxury sector, and her well known temperament and charisma are all assets which will enable her to perform her role to the full,” stated François Hériard Dubreuil.

Valérie Chapoulaud-Floquet spent more than twenty years with the L’Oréal Group where she successively held various executive positions in Asia, Europe and North America. After heading the Luxury Products Division at L’Oréal in the United States, she joined Louis Vuitton in 2008 where, having been entrusted with the development of Taiwan and the creation of the Southern Europe Region, she was subsequently appointed President and CEO of the Americas region.

-ENDS-

Contacts:

Laetitia Delaye (analysts):

Joëlle Jézéquel (press):

Tel: +33 1 44 13 45 25

Tel: +33 1 44 13 45 15